Principal's Message

Seniors:

The Ambassador of 1960 not only is the record of the past, but also a key to the future. Any failures, any successes that you have had, are already recorded. There is fear for the future in many hearts, but the spirit which these years have given you looks to the time ahead with courage and hope. In the days of conflicting ideologies, may you strive to preserve our most precious heritage which is freedom, the American way of life. I quote from Abraham Lincoln - "That this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Class Prophecy 1960

It is the evening of June 10, 1980. I find myself staring repeatedly out the windows of the Convention Hall of Old Point Warsaw, my recently acquired property. My expectation is that a few of my former classmates from Warsaw High are visiting their old hometown and have promised to drop in to see me. A nervous glance at my watch tells me that nine o'clock is just fifteen minutes away. Fifteen minutes! I wonder if they will still be the same old carefree crowd? Or will there be any distinct changes made in these last twenty years?

There's a cab! Before I see anyone, I hear her. Jennie Lou France, now a famous gossip columnist for the "Northern Neck News" is coming up the walk, pen and pad in hand. Leave it to Jennie who always knows the latest gossip. In fact, her column is headed "Gossip - Before It Happens."

Following Jennie is her hard-boiled boss, Frederick Barrack, editor-in-chief and sole owner of the multi-million dollar newspaper. Freddie attributes his tremendous success to the "go get'em scheme" he developed from selling "The Bulldog's Bark."

Shelby Sanders, my leading chorus girl, seats the first two distinguished guests. After a few years' hard study at dancing school, Shelby's first ambition was to teach this famous leg art; however, after I told her Wallace Withers was the band leader at my night club, she decided to come to work for me.

Wallace reached the position of band leader due to his ability to move his nimble fingers with amazing speed over the strings of a banjo. Two of his newest composes are the jazzed up versions of "Good Old Mountain Dew" and "Foggy Mountain Rock."

Suddenly, I hear a high soprano voice that could belong to none other than the former Jane Lang. "Herbert Junior, the thirteenth, get you fingers out of THAT man's coke!" Jane keeps a firm grip on her FIFTEEN "Herbert Juniors."

I turn to see who "THAT" man with the coke could be, and to my surprise I find myself face to face with Harroll Woolard. "Little" Harroll, now weighing the sum total of 295 pounds, is explaining to Norman France some of the finer techniques of driving. Norman is now a driver of Greyhound Buses. Little Harroll has had a lot of experience in the driving field; most of it was acquired on Main Street in Warsaw.

We can hardly wait to see Mrs. Galavan, the former Judy Peyton. Miss Peyton, after seeing the movie "Auntie Mamie," decided that was the type of life for her. She acquired quite a bit of acting experience in two of the Senior Class plays, so she became quite a success in Hollywood. Since her fifth divorce, she has decided to play the field, the same old Judy.

Among all the fine people in the night club, there is one who slipped in quietly as she always seemed to do. Carole Talent is now working as a silent disk jockey at the local radio station. Her employer thrills at her ability and her cooperation.

Melvin Mzingo enters, followed by his two secretaries, Gloria Hynson and Mary McKenney. Melvin is now chairman of the school improvement committee. He has accomplished two means of improvement in all schools. One is to do away with the age-old custom of girls first in the lunch line. The second is to completely abolish the poetry memorizing as a punishment for being late for classes.

Jimmy Davis is talking to Oscar Delano about improving operations of the F. F. A. Jimmy is now teaching agriculture at WHS and running a pig farm in his spare time. Bertha Lou has been a big help to Jimmy in getting this project started.

Oscar is now a worker in Washington, D. C. His duties include managing sixteen pretty blond government clerks.

Wayne Oliff just parked his bicycle outside. He's still complaining that he has "No Wheels." Wayne is now a recording artist for "Stuck Records." His newest release is "I Go Ape," under the name of King Kong.

The former Miss Mary Ogle Tayloe enters and everyone turns to stare at the uniform that she is wearing. Shortly after her arrival at business school, she decided it to be too dull, and after an encounter with a few sailors, she joined the WAVES. But, sadly she states that she saw more sailors BEFORE she joined their branch of service. So she returned to marry Tom and settled down to a nice quiet life, but still her favorite song is "Anchors Aweigh."

Harvey Hinson is working as a commercial artist for "Bell Telephone Company." He acclaimed national fame with the slogan known only as "Tingle, Tingle, Tingle, with Bell."

Mrs. Winston Rice known to us as Shirley Wilkins is now teaching the first grade at Warsaw. She has formed a club known as Marriage Anonymous. Some of her most avid members are Mrs. Berkley Taylor, the former Miss Shirley Webb, and Mrs. Billy Boyd, the former Miss Agnes Harper. They all agree that young marriages are the answers.

Barbara Smith has been teaching jujitsu to Ann Hall. Ann, it seems, became quite successful as a model for Johnson's Baby Products. Some of the boys, however, can't distinguish between the two different kinds of babies and so Ann has had to take some extra precautions. Barbara, being a gym teacher, offered to help her with her delightful problem.

Harold Hinson is a distinguished poet. His works have been published for years in the leading newspapers across the country. There is one difference between Harold and the other poets. All his poems are entitled simply "Betty."

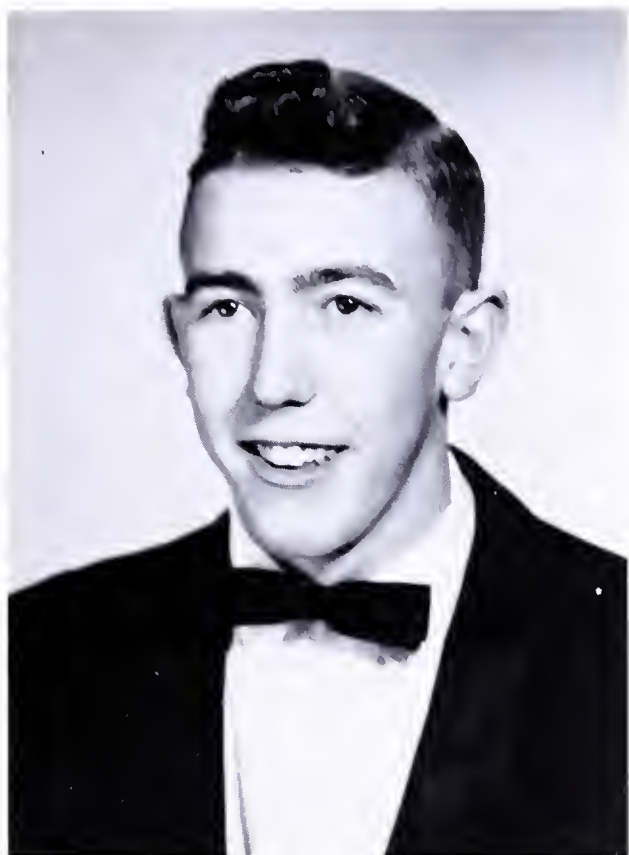

Thomas Sabotka is working in cooperation with Clarence Harper, Jr. He's running a smuggling racket, getting candy bars brought to the Little Orphans Home. Tommy and Clarence have been in this racket for over a year now, and they are doing very well.

Everyone is returning to the Ballroom, and I gaze fondly at my former classmates and friends. It's been great seeing them again, the same good, carefree, friendly group. May life continue to be kind to them until we meet again sometime, somewhere!

Sweet Nothings

Last Will and Testament

We, the seniors of Warsaw High School, county of Richmond, state of Virginia, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty, being sound of body and having depreciating minds, do make and declare this our last will and testament.

We, the seniors, have taken up a collection and bought a yo-yo for the freshman class. This will help them to develop quick minds and nimble fingers for their coming years at W. H. S.

To the sophomores we leave our ability to adjust to high school life and hope their career will be as happy as ours.

Now, the Juniors!

First of all, Jennie Lou France and Jimmy Davis will their moron and corny jokes to corny Mr. I. Q. himself, Dave O'Dell.

Oscar Delano leaves his F. F. A. jacket and souped-up Impala to Edward Thrift. We hope that Edward has as much success with the crops as Oscar has had on the drag-strips.

Harold Hinson leaves the Pitcher's mound, and all his romantic poems about Betty to the entire Junior class.

Freddie Barrack leaves his wit to Will Sanders. We hope that Will uses the half that Freddie never learned to use.

Mary Ogle Tayloe wills her ability to strut after scoring a point in basketball to Constance Packett. It takes a lot of practice to score a basket, but the wiggle comes naturally, eh, Mary Ogle?

Carole Tallent wills her brains and straight A report cards to Orren Hinson and Barbara Saunders in hopes that those two together can accomplish half as much as Carole did alone.

Wayne Oliff bequeaths his boon hat, loaded dice and his rosey cheeks to Bobby Shrader. We hope that the cheeks won't clash with your hair, Bobby!

Barbara Jean Smith leaves her motor scooter, bear traps, and lassos to Gretchen Sutton and Pattie Camper. All of these items were formerly used by Barbara to chase, trap and snare her favorite victims.

Judy Peyton, that flashy redhead of Warsaw High, wills her ability to act on the stage, but mostly off, to Keron France and Carolyn Oliff.

Gloria Adams leaves her brains and good looks to anyone who can qualify for them. If you are interested, you may secure an application blank from Gloria's private secretary, Shelby Sanders. Shelby is getting practical experience for her coming years at Pan American Business School.

Mary McKenney and Gloria Hynson leave their sure aim with an eraser to Patsy Bowen and Nancy Allin. Their motto is "Why should the devil have all the fun?"

Harvey Hinson leaves his knowledge of all the parking places to Tim Brown. It takes keen eyesight and fancy handling of the wheel, Tim, but we think you qualify.

Norman France leaves his crowded bus number 12 to the free wheeling, dare-devil driver - Sandra Packett.

Ann Hall, Agnes Harper, Jane Lang, Shirley Webb and Shirley Wilkins, who all have one thing in common, engagement rings, leave to the school library the latest novel on cooking, "A Thousand and one ways to Prepare Hot-Dogs," by the world renowned chef. Piere Leslie Claybrook.

Tommy Sabotka leaves a box of Baby Ruths to Mary Charlotte Barton. Many times through the years, we have seen Tommy running over to the bus terminal to buy Mrs. Pauline Delano some sweets. By the way - we have just heard that Tommy and Mrs. Delano are to be investigated by the School Board on payola charges.

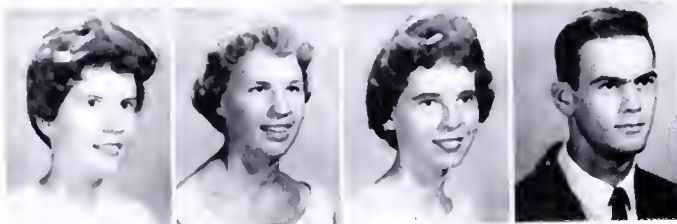

The senior class has purchased, for Johnny Harper, a roll-away cot which can be conveniently stored in the closet. We want to make Johnny as comfortable as possible while he is taking his frequent naps during English class.

Melvin Mozingo, Wallace Withers, and Harroll Woolard all said that they would leave something if they had something to leave, but since they will need everything they have, they'll just leave.

The Senior Class leaves its old, battered-up erasers, teachers, and all the good ole times we've had at Warsaw High to the on-coming classes.
